

INTEGRATED MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS POLICY

As Granada Luxury Hotels; We undertake;

- To perform our activities in accordance with the international standards and by fulfilling legal conditions; and to provide satisfaction by meeting needs and expectations of related parties,
- To inspect organisation processes and our management systems periodically, to provide the structure to stay dynamic by making improvement always; to organize trainings in order for all our employees to be included in the system and to use their talents at the highest level,
- At every stage of the food chain; To ensure the protection of product safety and quality by prioritizing human health, to provide standardized product quality by working in cooperation with our suppliers,
- In order to leave a liveable environment to future generations; to provide to protect environment, to evaluate our effects on environment, to use energy and natural resources efficiently, to ensure the adoption of environmental awareness by sharing our environmental practices with our business partners and guests,
- By recording guest complaints and requests with an impartial and honest approach, without deviating from the principle of confidentiality, to conclude and provide information within the required time,
- To set measurable goals and objectives to ensure continuous improvement of energy performance and EnYS; to improve energy performance to achieve these goals and objectives, to support the studies to be carried out for energy efficiency with design activities, to provide energy efficient products and services considering lifetime cost, to provide all our energy needs from renewable sources, to eliminate our carbon footprint within the next 15 years,

While managing our activities, to consider requirements of Quality, Environment, Food Safety and Customer Satisfaction Management Systems and to provide required sources studies on this.

General Director
Enis Selçuk ÖZSİNAN